Billy Casper Holds Family Home Evening In Oakland

BILLY CASPER, 1968 PGA Golfer of the Year, between WILBUR W. COX (left) president, California North Mission and (right) Dr. C. RAY LEININGER, bishop, Greenbrae Ward, exhibits his championship putter.

By Glenna M. Stephens

Billy Casper, last year's leading money winner and Professional Golfer's Association "Golfer Of The Year" for 1968, presented a "Family Home Evening" Monday evening Jan. 13 at East Bay Interstake Center, Oakland.

Casper, a member of the Church, spoke to Church members and friends. The meeting was under the direction of President Wilbur W. Cox of the Northern California Mission.

Dr. C. Ray Leininger, bishop of Breenbrae Ward, introduced the speaker.

The 37-year-old golfer was also PGA's Golfer of the Year in 1966, and was leading money-winner of the tour that year.

Casper unhesitatingly rates his family and his membership in the Church as his number one concerns, ahead of his seemingly-complete dedication to golf. He and his wife Shirley are the parents of Linda 14, Billy 12, Robert 8, and three adopted babies Byron, Jennifer and Judith.

The San Diego golfer always tries to find time for talks to church gatherings, wheerver he plays his game. He was in the Bay Area to play in the Kaiser International golf tournament at Silverado Country Club, Napa.

Billy Casper told his Oakland audience that Gary Player, South Africa's top professional golfer, joined him recently at a fireside at the Johannesburg Chapel of the South African Mission.

While Casper, a 1966 convert to the Church, averages two fireside meetings each Sunday, it was the first appearance for Mr. Player at a Church meeting.

PGA's Top Golfer said, "I have set goals for myself continually. Goals are important and give us a formula to work by."

Confiding that he always gives maximum effort, Casper continued, "I set three goals for myself: winning money, winning championships and winning major championships."

But attainment of these material goals left the golfer dissatisfied and he realized that he also needed a spiritual goal, he said. He was baptized Jan. 1, 1966, by Hack Miller, a Salt Lake City sports writer.

Our sports writer referred to his "new strength," acquired in the last three years, as a "secret weapon." He wrote, "This weapon is not a club, like the putter that has bailed him out so often, but a religion."

Counseling Center Accredited 5 Times

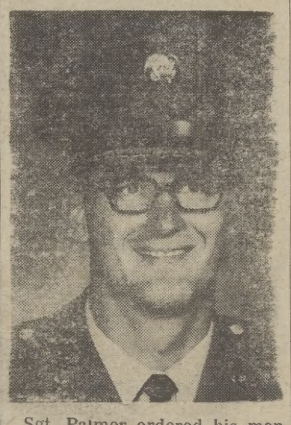
For the fifth consecutive time since 1960, the counseling center at Brigham Young University has been evaluated and accredited by the American Board of Counseling Services, Inc. It is the only counseling center in Utah to be accredited by this board.

Counseling Center director Dr. Vern H. Jensen, said that the accreditation certificate received is for a two-year period and is issued biennially to schools meeting professional standards and practices as established by the American Board of Counseling Services, Inc.

Wins Bronze Star

By Dorothy A. Spoon

A 22-yearold Fremont soldier in Vietnam was given the Bronze Star Nov. 28 for heroism Sept. 13 in the Republic of Vietnam. Staff Sgt. David Palmer was in the lead platoon and the lead squad, which was under his charge, ran into a heavily entrenched enemy position north of Duc Lap Sept. 13 resulting in loss of three of his men and permanent injury to two others.



Sgt. Palmer ordered his men back to await a helicopter gunship for fire support to cover their withdrawal while he held his forward posiiton to accurately direct the gunship attacks. Under cover from the gunship's fire, Sgt. Palmer charged the position of an enemy automatic weapons bunker and hurled a hand gronade into it, wounding the enemy gun crew and silencing the gun.

Sister Mahala Palmer has no doubt whatsoever why David's body was protected, even though it was the pocket knife in his pants pocket that broke in two pieces when a bullet struck, tearing David's pants leg and pocket. Sister Palmer has the knife sent to her by David to keep as a souvenir. With no way out David saw the end in sight with a grenade coming directly at him and blowing up in his face. Another miracle was performed in that only David's glasses were broken and his covered with dirt.

Sgt. Palmer is the son of the late Mr. F. M. Palmer and Sister Mahala Palme rof 820 Walnut St., Fremont. He is with Company B, 2nd Battalion, 35th Infantry, 4th Infantry Division.

Elder Palmer, a 1964 graduate of Irivngton High School, spent two years in England as a missionary for the Church from which he received his release in March 1967. He was drafted into the army in September 1967, and was assigned to Vietnam in August 1968. Staff Sgt. David Palmer is due to be transferred home Aug. 17, 1969.

Genealogical Library

By Dennis L. Lauper

A lasting way of importance to observe the true meaning of Christmas, which is to give with God-like love was introduced to patrons of the library several months ago by the Executive Librarian, Sister Pearl A. Sparks. The plan was for everyone to REMEMBER one of his or her ancestors with a permanent memorial gift which consisted of a $2.50 donation to the Oakland Genealogical Library with which to "purchase" a relevant microfilm from Salt Lake City to be kept on "permanent loan" in the local branch.

In order to help the idea "take hold" an actual Christmas tree was installed in the library early in October upon which was hung "ornaments" with the name of the ancestor who was being remembered inscribed thereon. Several patrons bought multiple ornaments so that the tree was very well decorated by the time of the library staff's annual Christmas Party Dec. 21.

The library was gaily decorated for the festive occasion with lovely poinsetta plants, streamers and tinsel, in addition to the beautiful tree that had been appropriately frosted. An official photograph was taken of those workers who were not currently stricken with the dreaded Hong Kong Flu and who were present for the occasion. (The photo will be reproduced in The Messenger next month).

All patrons who dropped in the library that Saturday afternoon were invited to partake of the tasty and appropriate refreshments which consisted of cookies, candy, nuts, chocolates and fruit punch with sherbet. The punch was donated by Brother and Sister John Drushal.

Winkel—Trythall

A morning ceremony in the Oakland Temple Saturday, Dec. 21 was the setting for the marriage of NANCY LOU WINKEL to FRANK VERNON TRYTHALL, with President Delbert F. Wright presiding. In Los Angeles at the home of the groom's parents, Brother Francis Turner Trythall and Sister Inez Trythal an open house was held.

Christmas was spent with the bride's parents before the couple returned to school at BYU, from which Frank will graduate in June 1969 and Nancy will have finished her sophomore year.

Letters To The Editor

"We enjoy the Messenger very much as it tells us, like this announcement will do, news of our friends and their children, whom we have known over the years while living in the Bay Area. So often we hear people say, 'Oh, I read that or saw that in the Messenger,' so that is why we thought if the enclosed were published friends throughout the area would know about our latest 'happenin' of acquiring a very lovely daughter. Having just the two sons this is the way we are going to acquire the feminine interest in our family.

"Thank you so much for your time and effort you put into publishing the Messenger that tells us of other ward activities wherein a name mentioned brings forth pleasant memories of other days when we were just Oakland Stake and one big family.

Sincerely,
Mrs. C. L. Bauer

By Ruby B. Ostier

The flu bug has been inhabiting many homes in San Leandro 2d Ward and some members are still very ill. It has taken a toll in the attendance of all ward meetings.

Brother and sister Bill Evans, two active members, have sold their home and moved into an apartment in the 4th ward.

The Robert De Celle family were all united for the Holidays, their daughter Karen was home from her teaching position in Utah. Robert II, and wife Jan were here enroute to Germany where Bob will be stationed. Other visitors were Don and Darlene Hughes and their young sons, Dan and Eric of Delta Utah visiting Don's parents, Don and Medie Hughes. Joyce and John Oscarson were here from FT. Bennington, Ga., where John is attending Officers Training School. They visited his parents in Utah and Joyce's parents, Bishop Ralph and Erma Lane. The Lones also received the happy news of another grandson, Jay Robert Powell, 5th Dec. born to their daughter Pat and Robert Powell of Buena Park.

Being sick with the Flu were Bishop Reiche, James Curry, David Copeland, Gladys Howland and many others. Marian Gooch has recovered after a throat operation, Dorothy Salinas and Myrna Hunt from major surgery.

Fremont 4th

Fremont 4th Ward members enjoyed an evening of dinner and entertainment in cultural hall of the chapel Jan. 10. Occasion was a fund-raising "Dime-a-Dip" dinner prepared and served by officers and teachers of the MIA and the girls who are planning to go to YWMIA camp this summer. Spaghetti and chili, with salads, bread and dessert comprised the menu.

Program afterward was the MIA quartet and choral festival. It included a variety of musical numbers by ward members ranging in age from two children from the Primary organization who sang solos, up through the teen-age group and included two quartet groups, one of Relief Society women, and one of men, plus several clever novelty numbers from various groups. Most of the families in the ward attended and enjoyed the evening's activities.

Among visitors at Sacrament meeting during Christmas holidays was 1st Lt. Richard Suico, so nof Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Suico of Fremont, who has recently served with the air force in Vietnam. Lt. Suico served an L.D.S. mission to Brazil several years ago. Many 4th ward members who were then in the old Irvington Ward remember him and were pleased to renew acquaintance with him. He returned shortly after Christmas to his post of duty here in the states.

Fourth Ward members signed their names early in December on Christmas greetings sent to all ward members in the armed services and to its two full-time missionaries. The missionaries are both serving in the cold areas of the hemisphere. Elder Larry Price is in the Alaskan-Canadian Mission and Elder David Reeve is in the Canadian Mission in Eastern Canada. Both elders report that they received the greetings from ward members and were grateful for the thoughtfulness.

Richmond Ward

By Mima Williams

We wish to welcome a new family moving into our ward recently. Raymond Chaster Memmott and his wife Dolores Yvonne are making their new home at 6343 Arlington Blvd., Richmond.

New members on record are Lora Lee askett McCullough, who was confirmed at a recent sacrament meeting, and her brother and sister, Robert Allen and Charlene, who received a blessing.

Advancements in the Aaronic Priesthood include J. Melvon Hatch, son of ward clerk Vernald and Jacqueline Wood, to the office of teacher; and James E. Grey to the office of priest.

The annual ward Era dinner was held Jan. 22 in the cultural hall and was followed with a special treat, the ward quartet and choral festival. The Berkeley Chapter of the Barber Shoppers has been invited especially to entertain us.

Lillian Chomor

Pittsburg ward was saddened at the recent death of Lillian Chomor, wife of Arthur Chomor, who passed away in the Kaiser Hospital, Walnut Creek, on Christmas Day of complications from cancr and the flu.

Sister Chomor, who had resided in the Pittsburg and Port Chicago area since 1925, was active in the word, having been a teacheer, over 33 years, in the Primary, the Mutual, and the Sunday School organizations, and a member of the ward Primary presidency.

She was born in Salt Lake City and was a member of a pioneer Mormon family in the east county. Her father, who also passed away in 1968, was one of the first Mormons to settle in this area and became the first president of the Pittsburg Branch, holding the meetings in his own home.

Sister Chomor is survived by her husband, two daughters, Jennifer and Mrs. Frank Andres and five brothers and sisters.
